CSSS LA POMMERAIE: LIKE A COUNTRY GARDEN WITH THE BIG CITY NEXT DOOR

The region that adapts
to your heart's desires.

Centre de santé et de services sociaux
La Pommeraie

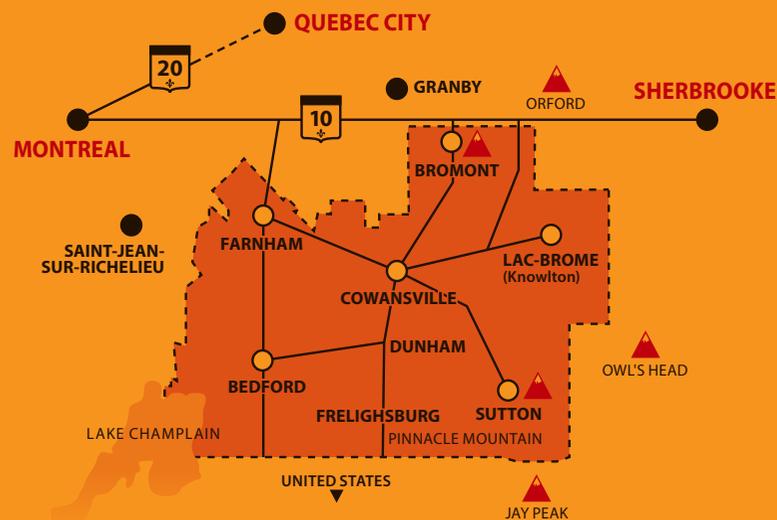

Doctors by day

Why do many exceptional people choose to live in this exceptional region?

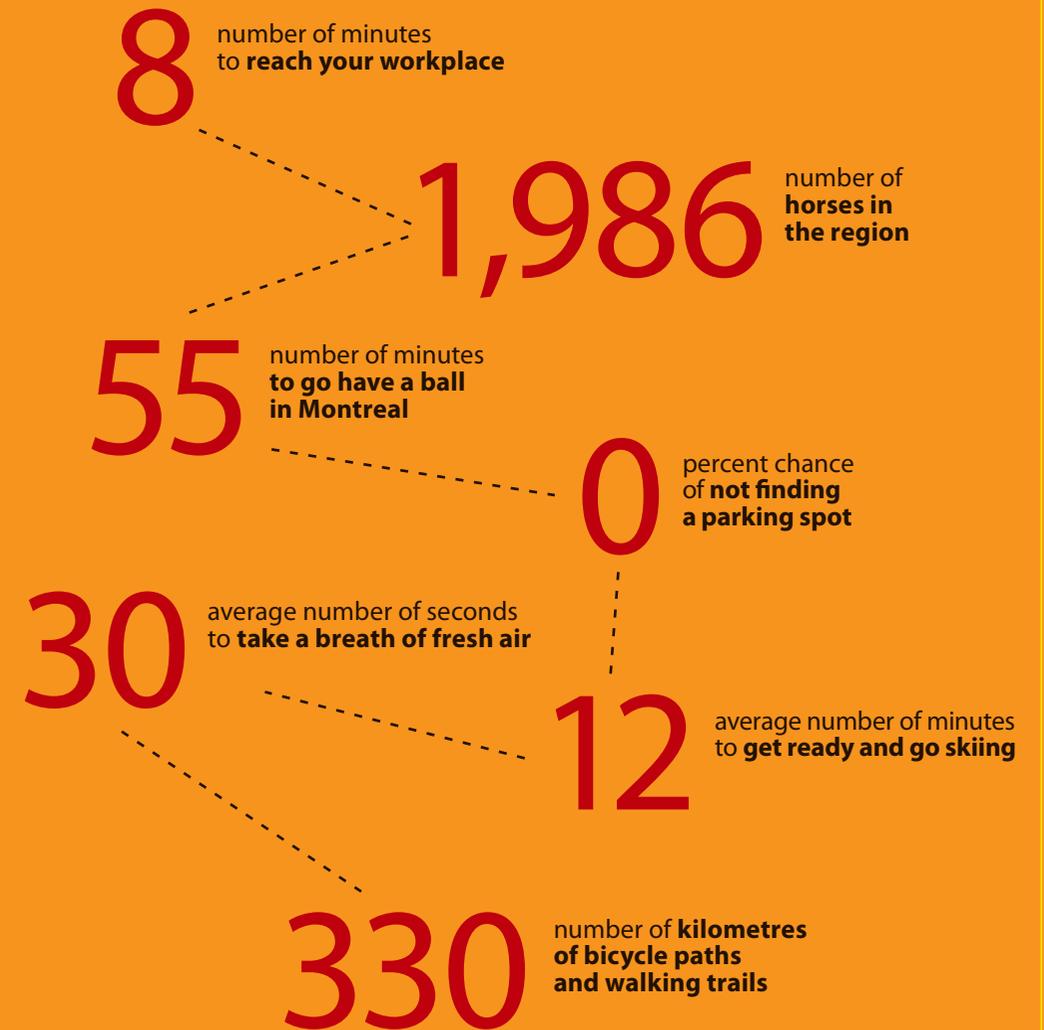

Many of the professionals who choose to call Brome-Missisquoi home – winemakers, horse, duck and bison breeders, apple growers, sculptors, sailors, aviators and golfers – also have careers in medicine.

Because it's the perfect place to indulge in their passion for medicine, while allowing them to practice their other professions... whatever they may be.

The best of all possible worlds

The region adapts perfectly to every possible lifestyle. Simply customize the experience to suit your own tastes. You're never "in the middle of nowhere".

La Pommeraiie isn't just a region, sector or area... it's a whole new way of looking at the practice of medicine.
